AFTER A HECTIC day of rebuilding, the Carmel Valley Youth Organization float brought the theme of "Valley in the Sun" to the Colmo del Rodeo lighted parade in Salinas. Miss Carmel Valley (Anne Warming-ton) reigned over a field of California poppies at the base of a mountain crowned with a glittering sun. Her attendants, Juanita Partridge (left) and Patty Brinsmead, relaxed on the grass in typical Valley fashion and greeted the spectators as they passed.

CVYO KIDS LEARN AT 1ST SALINAS PARADE

Carmel Valley Youth Organization members said they felt a little like a little tiny duck in a pond of great, big beautiful swans as they put the final touches on the Colmo del Rodeo float last Saturday. All sorts of crises had arisen on the trip over the grade, from the Valley to Salinas, such as the poppies blowing, the butterflies dropping out of a car, and the papier mache mountain getting loosened.

The truck with the float on its trailer had left a little earlier and as the cars with the youngsters caught up with it they could see the entire thing bounding apart on the bumpy Salinas-Monterey highway. They devised a way to keep it more secure for the balance of the trip, but the crowning blow of discouragement came when they were ushered into their spot at the parking lot between two perfectly gorgeous floats which towered over them.

Nevertheless, they mustered their resources, back-tracked and found the butterflies, repainted the mountain and replaced the greenery which had become all wilted in the hot midday sun.

All parade officials were extremely cordial and gave them whatever help they needed, answered their question, and spurred them on.

When the green grass was finished, the golden California poppies sprinkled on the field and the glittering Valley sun in the spot light, they felt a little less like an ugly duckling and took their place in the parade with dignity.

Delay subsidy for CV Chamber

A startled audience of Chamber of Commerce representatives heard their advertising funds temporarily cut off by the Board of Supervisors in a 3-2 vote last week.

Carmel Valley and several others had requested increases over last year's appropriations. Tom Verga, speaking for the Valley C of C requested a change from $750 to $1250.

Tom Hudson moved to grant the requests and increases, seconded by Edward Foley of (Cont. on page 24)

Community Center sponsors gala preview

A gala preview party will be sponsored by the Carmel Valley Community Center at the new Valley Cinema, opening in the Carmel Valley Shopping Center, off Berwick Drive.

The preview will be held on Wednesday, August 31, the evening before the grand opening on the first of September.

The opening movie, "Stage Coach," stars Bing Crosby, Bob Cummings, Ann-Margaret, and many others. The stars have been invited to attend the preview and there is a distinct possibility that one or two of them will be there, according to Bob Jones, Community Center president.

Jones added, "We hope everyone in the Valley and many from Carmel and Pebble Beach area will combine an evening of excellent champagne and top notch movie entertainment with their support of the Community Center. Tickets will be tax deductible and all proceeds will go to work of the Community Center and its youth activities."

Community Center Board members are working on exact plans for the party, and the time and other details will be announced next week. A champagne and cocktail party is planned prior to the showing of the movie with strolling Mariachis entertaining the guests in the arcade and foyer. A pit orchestra will summon the crowd to a short program which will be followed by the feature film.

Committee members, theatre owners Bruce Matson and Kirke Erskine, and their staff, will greet theatre-goers in traditional Western dress typical of the era portrayed in "Stage Coach."

Although the rest of the shopping center will not be open at the time of the Valley Cinema opening, the theatre building is nearing completion and will be ready the end of August, according to Matson and Erskine. First run films will be shown in the new playhouse which seats over 450 persons.

2nd lamb killed—Mike gets 3rd from Carmelo 4-H

A week ago, The Outlook published a letter from Mike Anderson, an eleven year old Carmelo 4-H Club member. His pet lamb, being groomed as an entry in the Monterey County Fair, had been killed, presumably by a dog.

Several days later, Mike took the rest of his money saved from allowances and birthdays, and purchased a second lamb. Less than 36 hours later, at morning feeding time, his second animal was found lying in the pen with his throat mangled. The killing apparently had occurred again in the early hours of the morning, and the marauder had destroyed a reinforced gate in order to gain entrance to the seven foot pen. The gate had been chewed and showed large teethmarks.

Mike is away at camp right now and doesn't know about this second killing.

The Carmelo 4-H Club called Mrs. Anderson over the weekend after hearing of the second incident. Jackie Beck told her that the club had gotten together

Valleyites win Rodeo awards

A third place ribbon for their mounted group was given to the Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club at the Salinas Rodeo on Sunday. The Grand Entry parade was the largest ever held at the Rodeo with 1,218 horses. The Trail and Saddle Club group made up of many young people looked very neat and attractive in their white shirts and new gold hats. Anne Warming-ton and Martha Ziegler led the group with Orli White following with the American flag.

On Thursday, Donna Carter, who had been one of the contestants for Sweetheart of the Rodeo, was awarded the trophy for excellence in scholarship. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carter of La Rancheria. Although she was not named "Sweetheart," she participated in each Grand Entry Parade with the other girls. Miss King City, Nicki Martinus, was named Sweetheart of the Rodeo.

WITH THE APPROACH of the Monterey County Fair on August 10, Carmelo 4-H Club members are busily engaged in finishing their projects and grooming their animals. During their exhibit day held at the Trail and Saddle Club grounds on Sunday, Joe Goodrick explained the fine points of judging her feeder lamb to Jenny Thornburg of Garzas Road. Listening to the discussion are Pal and Jim Ingram.

Editorial

Let's not cut off our noses

Sometimes civic and business organizations seem to look no further than the ends of their dollar signs. The recent "approval" by the CV Chamber of Commerce of a 50 unit condominium on Country Club Drive appeared to be just such a case.

While the approval did not constitute any legal acceptance, it did indicate the opinion of the Valley businessmen. (The applicant withdrew his proposal after the Advisory Board meeting.)

No one questioned the density, no one questioned the location and no one asked about the zoning change and its effect. Comment was made that many new people moving into the Valley would result in more business for the merchants... implying, therefore, that the development was a good idea.

Such a short-sighted viewpoint rarely does any good. We would hope that dollars pour into the local tills because of high quality merchandise, good buys and service rather than by packing the Valley with people at the expense of the master plan and our rural atmosphere.

Village parade will kick off Spanish Fiesta

Two free tickets to Mexico City on Western Airlines, will be given away as the climax of the C.V. Women's Club Spanish Fiesta on Saturday, September 24.

Mrs. Richard Dick, chairman of the benefit being held at the Holman Guest Ranch, told the Outlook that plans are well on their way for the all-day and evening fiesta.

The Spanish Fiesta will begin with a parade through the Village at 11:30 a.m., leading the way to the Holman Ranch. Tickets at the gate will be $1, with children under 12 admitted free if with an adult.

On the grounds of the ranch, many booths will be set up for food and games. Valley artists and craftsmen will be working in attractive settings under the portal of the old ranch buildings. There will be informal modeling by local shops during the day, a wine tasting, and a tour of the ranch house

Condominium Plan Abandoned

Larry Cummings withdrew his plan for a 50 unit condominium presented to the Upper Valley Advisory Committee on Thursday. It was apparent that there was considerable opposition to the proposal. Over thirty persons were present, among them a number of residents of the Country Club Drive area.

Cummings appeared surprised at the local opposition since the CV Chamber of Commerce had not raised any objections when he had previewed the plan before them.

In answer to questions from the Board, Cummings commented that no financial arrangements had been completed pending the decision on the zoning change from R3DB4 to R3DB4S. The change would have been necessary to set the increased density for the property.

Architect Clyde Smith from Carmel explained the scale of the drawings, stating there would be about 20 feet between the double units, which Advisory Board member Corene Smith likened to "the distance of a double carport."

John Briscoe whose home is across the street from the Rancho del Monte property said there was already gutter pollution in the area. He felt porosity tests should be run in the winter time when the carry-off ability of the soil would be considerably lessened.

Board chairman Morden Buck summed up his position saying he was not so worried about the density, as such, but THAT density on THAT spot. He added that property rights are important (the right to make money off one's investment was mentioned) but so are your neighbor's property rights.

Awards proposed for water safety students

In these days of fierce competition in sports, there is a class at the Community Swimming Pool which is busily engaged in learning to save lives.

The Junior and Senior Life Saving courses are under the auspices of the Red Cross. A swimmer must have achieved the level of intermediate swimming ability to enroll. The age level for the junior course is from 12-15, or seventh through tenth grade. Senior students must be 16 years or older, or above the eleventh grade in school. Twelve young people graduated from the first session class, and there are twenty-five enrolled this time.

In appreciation of the amount of study and work that go into the acquiring of these two Red Cross badges, there is a movement afoot to award a savings bond to the most proficient graduate of the two classes. Donations toward this award which is being promoted strictly for Valley kids by Valley parents may be turned in to Life Saving instructor Ken White at the pool.

Photos by George T.C. Smith

In the past history of Carmel Valley, the community got together quite often for special events to raise money for local projects. It is possible that two new happenings will become yearly traditions in bringing back the spirit of the old days.

The CVYO's "Straw Hat Festival" and the Lions Club-CV Firemen's Donkey baseball game brought good Valley turnouts and provided children and adults with a lot of fun. In addition they both raised sizeable amounts of money for the youth group and the Little League in a painless manner.

Volunteers win, 4 - 2

ABOVE—Raz Belleci appeared to have some secret communication with the beasts at the Donkey Baseball Game, because he was able to sweet-talk even the most ornery jackass to move.

The Valley at LARGE

By GINNIE DREW

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams of Meadows Place have been enjoying a summertime visit with their daughter, Barbara, her husband Wesley Dieter, and their children, David, Charles and Dana Ann. The Dieters are residents of another lovely place, Colorado Springs, but were ecstatic over the Valley, Carmel and the Peninsula which they saw for the first time.

Much family visiting took place during the two week stay before the Dieters returned to Colorado, where Barbara is a teacher and Wesley works for a Denver firm.

Leslie Fox of Laurel Drive has entered her bay gelding, "High Tide" as a working hunter in the National Horse Show at this year's Monterey County Fair.

The Rhyming Philosopher

Its hard to enthuse when society news
Doesn't tell what it knows as it used to;
And all that gets printed is censored and stinted,
Which shows what the press is reduced to.
What Mrs. Jones wore, and the table decor
Is only exciting as chit-chat.
But does the reporter say Mrs. Jones' daughter
Got drunk and was conked with a brick-bat?
And how can we trace who trumped Whowasit's ace?
Or what the gal said -- phew, what language!
And why don't they tell us what husband got jealous,
And who got his eye in a bandage?
In this cautious age the society page
Must never hurt anyone's feelings.
But no such conditions restrict the editions

RICHARD VEALE finds romance with Shelia Jo White after a good deal of farcical operatics in Offenbach's "Marriage by Lantern Light." This and Bizet's "Dr. Miracle," two "very light" one-act operas, are presented at White Oaks Theatre each Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. Richard and Shelia Jo also have major parts in the current production of "Once Upon a Mattress."

Drama review:

Hilarious 'Mattress' at White Oaks

By GINNIE DREW

White Oaks Theatre Summer Company has done it again with "Once Upon a Mattress," which opened last week-end. The entire production and cast, the imaginative, fantasy inspired medieval set, dance routines, chorus, costumes and lighting are a delight to behold. This reviewer says bravo to all, but to some there must be very special mention.

Bouncing, bumping, bubbling Linda Boblitt brought down the house with her portrayal of Princess Winnifred. Even when she is in repose (which doesn't happen often) Linda looks like she's ready to come up with something to look forward to. And as a play, "Mattress" could have been written for her. The antics of Princess Winnifred as she tries to sleep on twenty mattresses placed over one small pea are hysterical. And the songs between Prince Dauntless (Don Honeycut), who is suitably shy and silly, and Princess "Fred" brought rounds of laughter and applause.

Ron Stark (who always seems to end up playing the king if there is a king to be played) is a wonderful, funny and wise ruler who is not able to speak (his wife has done it for him for years). His pantomime is exceedingly articulate and he steals scene after scene as he chases and pinches the palace scullery maids. His silent explanation to his son, Prince Dauntless, of the birds and the bees is magnificent.

Shelia Jo White, playing the anxious Lady Larkin, and John

French farce opens Friday at Carmel's Circle Theatre

"An Italian Straw Hat," a French farce which has been a musical comedy hit for one hundred and fifteen years, will open at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre in Carmel on July 29.

"Straw Hat" has to do with exactly that . . . an Italian straw hat. The completely fantastic plot forms the background for the 20 enchantingly different songs that make "Straw Hat" a real musical treat.

Director Norman McPhee has announced the versatile cast. Nick Hovick is the harried, confused, but always charming hero, Fadinard. C. Winter (Clancy) Van Horn plays the part of an irate husband, Beauperruis. S. James Goffard will play Nonancourt and Tony Garofoli will play Vezinet.

Others in the cast are Michel Joyet, Joyce Malikoff, John Russell, Anne Brown, Bob Barrett, Duan Jones, Lilly Lovejoy, Joan Swartz, Bea Gracey, Kathy Jerram, Wendy Thaler, and Charles Richmond. Director Norman McPhee will also play a small role.

"An Italian Straw Hat" opens July 29 at the Circle, and will play each Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evening at 8:30 through September 10.

Outlook Leisure Times

MPC production of 'Love's Labour's Lost'

One of Shakespeare's earliest and happiest comedies, "Love's Labour's Lost" will be staged at Monterey Peninsula College July 28, 29 and 30 and August 4, 5 and 6. The production is a "first" at MPC: the first play to be rehearsed and presented during a summer session at the college; the first in which townspeople as well as students were invited to read for roles; the first to feature a revolving stage.

Director Morgan Stock, MPC drama department chairman, commented, "If the production is successful, we hope to have established a tradition of summer theater at the college."

The cast of the comedy about the courting warfare of young noblemen and ladies includes: Rod Sibley, MPC student from Carmel, as Armado; Craig McClaren, a Defense Language Institute student, as Ferdinand the King; David Hunt, who will be an MPC drama major in the fall, as Berowne; Reade Wood, an MPC student who last appeared in the college production of "The Hostage," as Longaville; Sean Tracy, an MPC student from Pacific Grove, as Du-main. Other cast members included in the production from Carmel are: John Morgan as Costard; Susan Nason, a sophomore theater major from Purdue University, who is attending the MPC summer session, as Rosaline; Mary (Molly) Holman, who also attends the summer session, as Maria.

Curtain time each evening in the MPC Little Theater on Campus will be 8:30. Tickets-$1 for adults, 50 cents for students-will be sold at the theater door.

Denise Cullen becomes the bride of Michael Orton

Denise Marie Cullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Cullen of La Rancheria, and Michael Ross Orton were married in an early afternoon wedding on Sunday, July 3. Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Orton of Pebble Beach. Rev. James Brock performed the ceremony at St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church in Carmel Valley.

Denise wore a floor length Empire gown of peau de soie, with a scoop neckline and a narrow panel of lace inset in the skirt. The tapered panel train was trimmed with matching lace. Her lace mantilla was caught by a satin open-crown pillbox. Carrying a nousegay bouquet of white roses, carnations and stephanotis, Denise was escorted to the alter by her father.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Carolyn (Mrs. John Alleman) and bridesmaids were Mike's twin sister, Patricia (Mrs. Larry Orton), Barbara Updike of Carmel and Kathleen Slattery of Orinda. All the girls wore matching aqua floor length Empire gowns and carried nousegay bouquets.

Larry Crouch was Mike's best man and ushers were John Alleman, Ceil Howe and Jim Smith.

Denise is a 1964 graduate of Carmel High School and attended Monterey Peninsula College before her marriage.

Mike graduated from Le-moore High School and MPC and Coalinga Junior College. He is currently stationed in San Diego and the two young people will live in Miramar during his three year Navy term.

Auditions slated for Community

Theatre production of 'The Best Man'

An open audition has been announced for the next production of the Community Theatre. "The Best Man," by Gore Vidal, has a tentative opening date of September 16 following "An Italian Straw Hat."

Director Norman McPhee will meet with anyone interested in the play at 7:30, August 1 and 2, at the Circle Theatre, Casanova Street between 8th and 9th Avenues in Carmel.

All roles are open. They call for American types between the ages of 20 and 65. There are 14 male roles and 6 female roles. The male roles consist of two presidential nominees, their campaign managers, an ex-President, senators, newspapermen, and convention delegates. The female roles in the play are the two wives of the candidates, a powerful National Committee woman, and convention delegates.

The plot concerns a presidential nominating convention and two powerful nominees in a personal fight to gain leadership of the party. It is a hard-hitting play, which contrasts the minds, emotions and fighting spirits of the two candidates. If you are interested in auditioning for the play and cannot make either scheduled audition, please call 624-2669 for an appointment.

Outlook On Carmel

July 27, 1966

LINDA SHELTON AND KIT HAWKINS prove there is a wide variety of used merchandise available at the MPVS Thrift Shop which is turning over all of its August proceeds to the Carmel Youth Center. Everything from refrigerators to robes will be collected by the Youth Center to help stock the Shop for the sale. (George T. C. Smith photo)

Youth Center to benefit from sale

The Carmel Youth Center is busily engaged in collecting used merchandise for next month's sale at the MPVS Thrift Shop in Seaside. Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services has set the month of August for the youth group and all proceeds from the Seaside shop will be donated to them.

The young people are busy picking up rummage, taking it to the Youth Center where they tag and classify it before delivery to the shop.

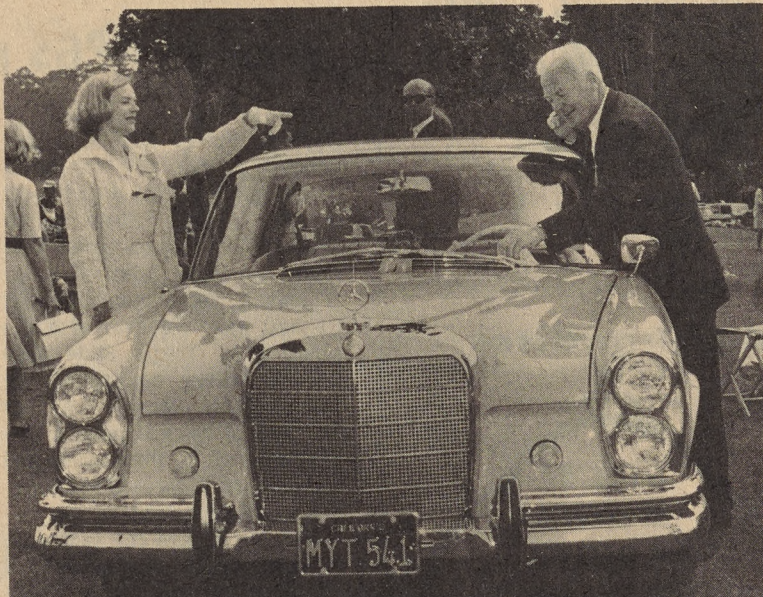

Anyone having things which they wish to donate for the sale may call 624-4061 or 624-3285

AFA Studio Tour

Among the 18 artists' studios which will be shown on Saturday during the AFA tour are two of completely different character. The home of Louisa Jenkins overlooks Carmel Valley. Louisa is well known for her mosaics and collages. Her combined studio and home reflects her artistic imagination and is in itself a piece of sculpture.

Virginia and Alex Gonzales live and work in a house which years ago belonged to the actor Victor McLaglen. Alex has rebuilt it by hand . . . resulting in a true artist's home.

for pickup, or boxes may be left in front of the Youth Center.

"HEY, YOU MISSED A SPOT OVER THERE!" Liz directs her husband, Morden Buck, to shine it up at the Concours d'Elegance on Saturday. Do you suppose this is why Morden's Mercedes 220 SE only got a second place ribbon this year . . . or was it the tiny dent he found in the door a few days before the Concours?

Concours d'Elegance

Record crowd sees '31 Bugatti win first place

Beautiful weather brought over 5,000 spectators, the largest crowd ever attending the Concours d'Elegance, to the lawns of the Del Monte Lodge on Saturday. Crowds milled about the grounds throughout the day examining the displayed automobiles.

Overall winner at the Concours was William Hurrah of Reno, Nevada, with a 1931 Bugatti. Robert A. Davies of Belvedere won the Lucius Beebe Rolls-Royce award with his 1934 RR Phantom II which was also the show's reserve winner.

Arthur Stewart of Pebble Beach is now the owner of the 1940 Austin Bantam coupe which was given as Concours d'Elegance gate prize by C. Taylor Pillsbury.

A number of Carmel, Pebble Beach, Carmel Valley and Salinas entrants won first, seconds and thirds in the Concours d'Elegance held Saturday at Del Monte Lodge.

Alton Walker of Pebble Beach took first in the Rolls-Royce Pre-War class with his 1939 Rolls-Royce Wraith. General H. N. Lyon of Carmel took second with his 1925 Rolls Roadster. Arthur B. Mullaly, also of Carmel, took second in the Closed Division with his 1939 Rolls-Royce Phantom II.

Morden Buck, of Carmel Valley, took second in European Passenger Cars, Closed, with his 1964 Mercedes 220 SE. Randolph Hilton of Carmel took third in the same division with his new 1966 Rivolta ISO Coupe. Philip Smith of Carmel took third in European Passenger Cars, Open, with a 1955 Mercedes Benz 220 A. First in this class was won by George Rouch of Salinas with a 1951 Jaguar Mark V.

J. van Amerongen, Carmel, took second in the Bentley Post-War class with his 1965 Bentley S-3 Sedan.

Former Peninsula resident Francis H. I. Brown of Honolulu, took a first in the antique division with his 1913 Simplex Roadster.

Second in the Special Interest Class was won by Phillip Adkins of Monterey with a 1928 Model A Ford. Third was awarded to Vernal E. Gilbert of Salinas for his 1929 Studebaker President.

Forest Theatre Sunday program

The next Sunday afternoon program at the Forest Theatre will feature a variety of performers. The 2 p.m. show is free to the public and is sponsored each week by the Carmel Arts Commission.

The regular Sunday afternoon series is scheduled to continue through the fall while weather permits.

Village merchant, Don MacKenzie, is always in the best of spirits

Don MacKenzie, owner of the Grapevine Liquor Store for the past seven months, is a man with a keen sense of humor and boundless energy—a welcome combination for a growing Carmel Valley Village.

MacKenzie ran the highly successful Don MacKenzie Insurance Agency in Monterey for 15 years, before deciding to take it easier and take over a business near his home in Los Ranchitos. "I got tired of driving into the fog every morning," he commented.

LONG-TIME VALLEYITES

The MacKenzies have a special affection for Carmel Valley, for they both are Valley old-timers. His wife, the former Jean Stewart, was born

Don settled here in 1936 after graduation from high school in King City. Born in Monterey County, in Watsonville, he was raised in the Salinas area, where he attended elementary and high school.

Don's first job after moving to Carmel Valley was helping Frank DeAmaral operate the old riding stable at Robles del Rio Lodge. He remembers cutting hay where the present airstrip is, when the Valley had a sprinkling of a few hundred people and the Village didn't exist.

MacKenzie went to work for the Bank of America, serving in Napa, Martinez and back in Salinas. In 1942 he enlisted in the Army, and collected five battle stars with "Blood and Guts" Patton's 3rd Army, rolling across Europe. His 837th Ordinance Co. had pushed clear into Czechoslovakia when the war ended.

"I'll never forget Thanksgiving Day, 1945—for that's the day I got out of the Army," Don added.

BACK TO BANKING

He returned to the Bank of America and moved to the old Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank.

In 1949 he became affiliated with the E.K. Lyman Insurance Agency, which he bought out in 1950 and switched to his own name.

MacKenzie was a busy man in Monterey, and served as exalted ruler of the Monterey Elks Lodge and president of the Independent Insurance Agents of Monterey. He is also a past president of the Monterey Kiwanis Club and is now a member of the Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club.

The MacKenzies have four children. Susan is married, lives in Palo Alto and attends Foothill College. Stewart has just graduated from Carmel High School this spring; he and his dad like to hunt in the mountains near their cabin at Whiterock, the hunting club at the end of the Robinson Canyon Road.

Sally, 14, will be a freshman next fall at Carmel High. She and her two horses, Domino and Cinnamon, are stars at local horse shows where they are in the habit of collecting trophies and ribbons.

Eight-year-old Scott attends Tularcitos School, and is an enthusiastic baseball player in a Little League Farm Team.

Don MacKenzie is one of the organizers of the recently-formed Village Committee and is its Village Beautification Committee chairman. Proof of its successful initial action is the clean-up of the vacant lot beside Town & Country Realty on Carmel Valley Road.

He sees a new spirit of cooperation in the community reflected in the Village Committee, which he feels is an encouraging sign. He laughs that Carmel Valley, of course, would be a more perfect paradise if the gates had closed when he arrived about 30 years ago. But, that not being practical, cooperation of those here and those bound still to arrive, will produce a happier place for everybody to enjoy.

Dr. Robert E. Gaskell appointed head of NPGS math department

Dr. Robert E. Gaskell of Carmel Valley has been appointed as the new chairman of the mathematics department at the Naval Postgraduate School. The announcement was made by Rear Admiral E. J. O'Donnell, superintendent. Dr. Gaskell was professor of mathematics at Oregon State University before coming to the Postgraduate School. At the PG School he will head a department of 29 professors and instructors who teach 101 courses in mathematics.

The author of the textbook, "Engineering Mathematics," which is in use at the Postgraduate School, Dr. Gaskell graduated with high honors from Albion College, Albion, Michigan, in 1933, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry. He received the degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy in mathematics from the University of Michigan in 1935 and 1940, respectively.

Dr. Gaskell has been employed as a physicist with the Navy Electronics Laboratory, and as head of the mathematical research laboratory of the Boeing Company, in addition to teaching at Albion College, the University of Alabama, Brown University, Iowa State College and Oregon State University.

Together with his wife, Jane, Dr. Gaskell lives on Calle de los Agrinensors in Robles del Rio. They have two children, a daughter, Ellen, who is living in England, and a son, Robert, who is attending Brown University. Dr. Gaskell replaces Dr. W. Randolph Church whose term as department chairman has expired.

Feast of Lanterns

1966 PROGRAM

The Oriental theme of the Feast of Lanterns was adopted as the closing feature of the Methodist Retreat at Lake Chautauqua, New York. In 1905, when Pacific Grove was the Chautauqua of the West, the Feast of Lanterns closed the annual Chautauqua until all celebrations were stopped by World War I. It was held a few times after that but was revived in 1958 at the request of Councilman Clyde F. Dyke. It is a community event, the highlight being the crowning of Queen Topaz on Saturday evening, followed by entertainment and a parade of boats from Monterey festooned with lighted Oriental lanterns, which circle under a canopy of fireworks. Most events are free to the public.

By Mildred Hattan

A distinguished figure from the world of music visited the Valley last weekend when George Shearing was a house-guest of Col. and Mrs. Adolph Friedenthal at their home on Country Club Drive and Horizon Way. Noted for the style and sound associated with the Shearing Quintette, the blind pianist has brought listening pleasure to millions and has been an inspiration to others who are handicapped. Mr. Shearing accompanied the Friedenthal's cousin, Ed Fuerst. A third member of the party was Lee, Mr. Shearing's handsome golden retriever guide-dog, who became fast friends with the Friedenthal's long haired dachshund! Having recently completed taping a series of radio shows, the artist enjoyed relaxing around the pool and commented frequently on how fresh our smog free Valley air smelled. From the Valley, Mr. Shearing went to San Francisco, where he will appear at the Bohemian Grove and from there will make an appearance in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Underwood, Jr., 55 La Rancheria, enjoyed a visit recently from Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Underwood, Sr., of Memphis, Tennessee. Dr. Underwood who retired this year at Memphis State University from a career in Education, enjoyed attending the end of the year luncheon for the administrators of Monterey district. Mrs. Underwood was feted with a Koffee given in her honor by Mrs. Don Harrison, and one given by her daughter-in-law which gave her a chance to meet La Rancheria neighbors. The senior Underwoods enjoyed being present for the celebration of their granddaughter's eighth birthday. Tamsen who is very fond of horses invited classmates to her party which had a carousel theme. Admiring the "horses, horses, horses" were: Melody Mancebo, Katherine Belleci, Diana Golden, Patty Boorman, and Cindy Shepard.

Mr. Herbert Reuter who has taught for a number of years at Tularcitos Elementary School and Middle School, has taken a year's leave of absence to study for his Master's Degree at the University of Indiana at Bloomington. Recommended for a National Science Grant by the professors at the University of Missouri which he attended last summer, Mr. Reuter was one of twenty-five to be awarded a Fellowship with which to continue his studies. Accompanying him east will be his wife, Donna, and children, Winifred, Mary Jane, Walter and Douglas. The Reuter family plan to live on campus and have rented their home on Lower Circle to Mrs. Jane Shaw and her four children.

Neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Andrew Nottenkamper to say "goodbyes" to Mrs. Reuter and to present her with a money tree. Co-hostess, Mrs. John Woods, and Mrs. Nottenkamper served coffee and dessert to: Mmes. Robert Hoover, Margaret Bennett, George Jennings, Michael Carter, A.A. Collins, Greg Scherman, and Harry Bixby.

Mrs. Clarine Bruno and Mrs. Ida Duncan invited a group of friends to their Village Drive home for cocktails and to celebrate the birthday of their brother and son, Mr. Harry Duncan, who was visiting from San Francisco. In addition to his niece, Lisa, Mr. Duncan was honored by General (ret.) and Mrs. Eugene Reinartz, Mrs. Marie Burstein, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erion, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dalton, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Swiss.

New dates for MPC placement exams set

A new schedule for placement examinations required of all new students planning to enroll for full-time attendance during the fall semester, has been announced at the Monterey Peninsula College department of student personnel.

Tests will be given on August 20 and September 3 at 8 a.m. in the library lecture hall on campus, as well as at 7 p.m. on September 7, also in the lecture hall. A test for foreign students only has been scheduled for September 2, 10 a.m., in the lecture hall.

Evening students must take the placement test as well, or submit evidence of previous successful college work if planning to enroll in English, U.S. History, American Government, Psychology, Philosophy, Sociology or Speech classes.

With some 1400 students already registered and some classes closed, registration for the fall semester is continuing daily in the college administration building. Office hours are 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Cultural center for Peninsula being studied

Mr. Andy R. Trivedi of Economics Research Associates, Los Angeles, has been sent to Monterey by the California Arts Commission to begin a study of the feasibility of a cultural center building complex in this area.

Mr. Trivedi, who arrived in Monterey Monday, July 25, is to advise on site location and the economic feasibility of the project in response to a joint request from four area organizations: the Arts Coordinating Council of Monterey County; Cultural Arts of the Monterey Peninsula; Monterey Peninsula College and the Monterey Peninsula Branch of the American Federation of Arts.

National championships next*Cypress Swim Club reviews its short successful history

In September, 1964, auditions were held for potential members of a new, competitive, synchronized swimming club in Carmel Valley. There were 64 girls trying out for the new team, but only 25 members could be taken. The standards were high: applicants were required to have maintained a "B" average scholastically, and to be better than average swimmers as evidenced by an exhaustive swimming test prepared by the coach.

On September 28, The Outlook announced the results of those tests, and the newly-formed Cypress Swim Club was underway.

Donn Squire, coach of the new club said, "With material like this to choose from, we can't help but win championships. We should be ready for a show by early spring."

That show was ready, (The Festival of the Grape), and others, too, culminating in the first annual "Aqua-Spectacular, An Exhibition of Champions, Past, Present and Future," which brought all the Junior National AAU champions into the MPC pool last year.

But more importantly, members of the club did win championships, and rather consistently earned medals and ribbons in AAU competition. They hosted the first AAU event to be held at the new Carmel Valley Community Center pool in June of last year. Almost one thousand spectators watched representatives from ten Northern California clubs competing for titles in the 1965 Pacific Association AAU Outdoor Novice Synchronized Swimming Championships.

The infant Cypress Swim Club surprisingly finished its first competitive season with one gold cup, ten bronze medals, eighteen silver medals, and many ribbons from Association and National AAU competition, and the club is now nationally recognized.

Now, 22 months after its formation, the club is preparing a large entry for the 1966 Senior National AAU Outdoor Synchronized Swimming Championships at Rancho Cordova, near Sacramento, this week-end July 29, 30 and 31. In what will probably be the largest Nationals in the history of the sport, the Cypress Swim Club entry will consist of two teams and four duets.

In the duet division will be Jan and Sharon Roehl with

The group left today with their coach, Donn Squire, manager, Del Neel, and two chaperones, Mrs. Robert Roehl of Monterey, and Mrs. John Mark of the Valley. They will get some practice time in the championship pool before the competition begins on Friday morning. In the meantime, they will be feted to sightseeing in the state capitol and other entertainment, the highlight of which will be a special banquet tomorrow (Thursday) night.

which is named Casa Escondida (the Hidden House). In the corral area there will be a number of attractions for the youngsters, including games and pony rides.

Climax of the day's activities will be the Baile Escondido, with dancing in the Spanish patios and the ranch house. Dress for the gala ball will be either Spanish costume or party clothes.

The Women's Club is sponsoring the Spanish Fiesta as their yearly benefit for Valley youth groups and charitable organizations.

many new friends of the English visitors are hopeful it will give them an excuse to extend their stay in the Valley.

Pink lace place mats on tables centered with bouquets of fuchsias with larger bouquets of hydrangeas and fuchsias used about the rooms where chosen as the decor by Mrs. John Hughes and Mrs. Roy Kaminski, hostesses for the Benefit Bridge and Canasta party sponsored by the Chapel Guild. It was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel. There were three tables of bridge and one of canasta. Miss Sarah Oppenheimer and Mrs. George Clifford won High and second place in Bridge. The Canasta prize was won by Mrs. Richard McKenzie. Last month's Benefit was held at the La Paloma Road home of Mrs. Rex Pryer. Assisting her with the three tables of bridge and two of canasta was Mrs. Ron Henderson. Mrs. Irving Ollason, new reservation chairman, may be reached at 659-2440 by persons wishing to make reservations for the August 16th party which will be held at the home of Mrs. Irvin T. Johnson. Her co-hostess will be Miss Sarah Oppenheimer. Reservations may also be made with her for persons wishing to utilize the new baby-sitter service provided at the Fellowship Hall while mothers enjoy an afternoon of cards.

Mary and Bill Baugh of Robles del Rio accompanied by former Valley residents, Jasmine and Leland Jorgenson, and the Jorgenson children, spent last weekend touring San Francisco. The visitors explored art galleries, shops and points of interest and saw more of the City than on any previous visit. The Jorgensons who formerly lived on Lower Private Road now make their home in San Jose.

Mrs. William "Bud" Hall of 16 Paso Hondo was hostess to the ladies of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary who met Thursday at her home. Members discussed a forthcoming family picnic and the September Fashion Show. Mrs. Michael Carter conducted the meeting in the absence of club president, Mrs. Don Corona.

Sally and Bob Kvenild and children are getting settled in their new home. The location is the former home of the Arlo Pitchers at 48 Sage Road and situated in the middle of a wonderful orchard filled with fruit and nut trees. Happy "gentleman-farming!"

The winners of the Duplicate Bridge Tournament conducted last Tuesday evening at the Community Center by members of the Valley Bridge Club were: Jeff Huddleson and David Partridge in first place, Mrs. Dale Vandervort and Mrs. Emily Huddleson in second place and a third place award to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Antoncich.

"The first girl to arrive in our family for generations" is the happy report from the Carmel Valley Road home of Dr. and Mrs. Clinton J. Zobel who recently welcomed their third grandchild. Little Miss Margery Louise Perry arrived June 29th at the Alisal Community Hospital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Perry of 4631 East Dwight Way in Fresno. The Zobels had a delightful three week visit at their home near the Begonia Gardens with the Perrys, their new arrival, and their two grandsons, Mathew and Steven. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Zobel of Watsonville.

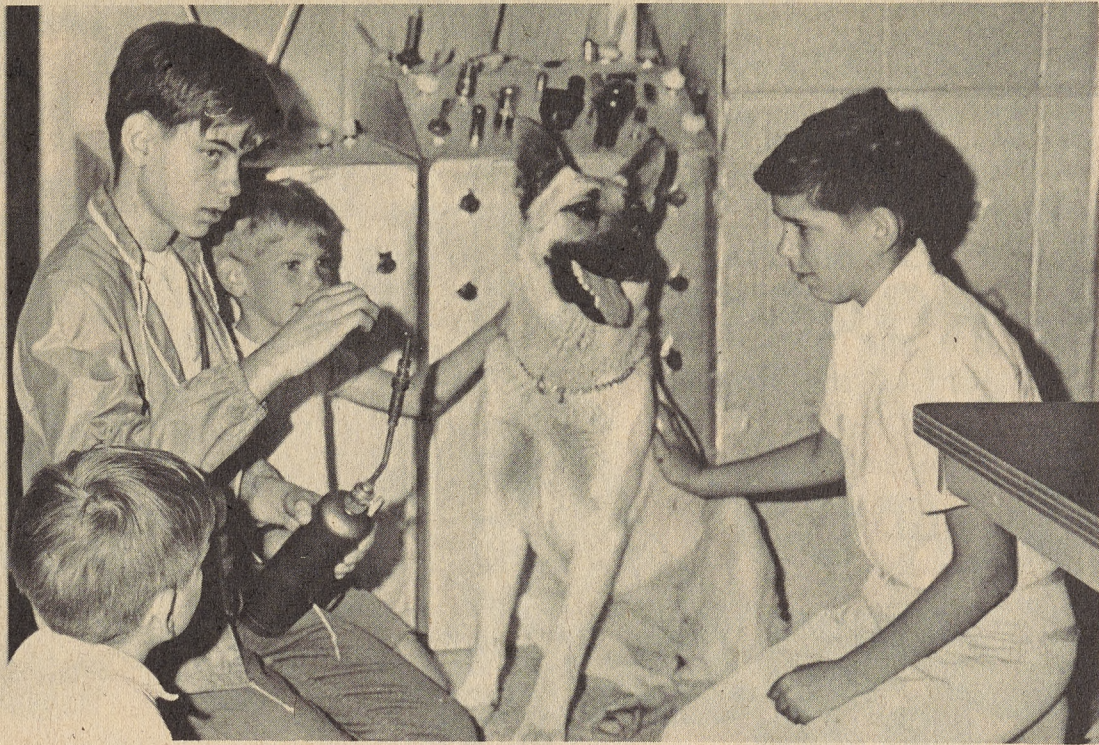

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Verga entertained their daughter, Barbara and her husband, Jim, recently on a Valley visit to the Verga home in Camp Steffani. The Sillimans make their home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ijams, Jr., and daughters, Rusty and Jenny, have moved from Middle Canyon Road to Hitchcock Canyon. Their recently purchased home was formerly owned by the Larry Thury family.

Laurel Dr. grass fire burns quarter acre

A grass fire of undetermined origin, still under investigation, burned one quarter acre on July 17 on Laurel Drive. Fifteen members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department and five vehicles responded to the alarm on unimproved land owned by Lloyd Pina.

Members of the first aid crew of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department were called to 99 Rancho Road July 19 at 8:28 p.m. Milton Williams had fallen at his home and was transported to the Community Hospital with a possible fractured hip and wrist.

PAUL BRESK is using his blow torch to put the last minute touches on the TIME MACHINE which took visitors to the closing program of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel Bible School back to Bible times. Accompanied by flashing lights and weird noises which Paul had tape recorded, visitors made entry through the door behind Peter Mauzey who painted the machine a shining silver. Carl Bresk, Jeff Johnson and Duchess are looking forward to their trip through the time machine.

The regular Carmel Valley news report heard every Thursday morning at 10:32 over Radio Station KIDD will be discontinued while news director Rob Mahr is on vacation. Valley news will be incorporated into regular newscasts.

Cancer Society Benefit

Horses from as far as New York entered in 3-day Arabian Show

Embellishing the action and beauty packed classes with many special events, this year's All Arabian Summer Horse Show will open at the Monterey County Fairgrounds in Monterey, July 29, 30 and 31st. Show secretary Mrs. Roberta Chappell of Carmel Valley, reports that to date 236 horses are entered. To the splendor of the native costume classes, the thrills of the jumping and cutting horses, the nostalgia of old fashioned costumed side-saddle riders and the hilarity of the Dollar Bill Marathon, the show has scheduled such bonuses as "Jaguar" the trained Arabian stallion belonging to C. Lee of Lee's Arabians, Delhi, California; the retirement ceremony of "Ronzteza," champion show mare belonging to Sheila Varian of Arroyo Grande, California; and the antique Spanish caleche, loaned by Charles Steen of Nevada, drawn by a matched hitch of purebred Arabian horses in silver-mounted harness and accompanied by Spanish costumed outriders.

"Exhibitor response is terrific," Mrs. Chappell says. "We have entries from the length and breadth of the state, as well as from Oregon, Utah, Nevada, Oklahoma, Arizona and New York." There will be four performances of the show: Friday at 1:00 p.m., Saturday at 1:30 and 8:00 p.m. and Sunday at 1:30 p.m. The breeding division classes, admission free, are scheduled for 9:00 a.m. Saturday and 8:30 a.m. on Sunday. At these classes the horses are shown only on a lead. In its second Monterey presentation, the show will again benefit the Monterey County American Cancer Society.

The more popular events scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, the Friday performance consists largely of equitation and pleasure horse classes, both Western and English. For this reason, tickets for Friday will only be sold at the Fairgrounds at the reduced rate of 50¢, children under 5 years admitted free. Tickets for Saturday and Sunday performances, both matinee and evening are: Box seats, $2.00; General Admission, $1.25; Service and children, 75¢, and special all-performance tickets may be purchased for $3.00.

Tickets are on sale locally at Cork 'n Bottle, Carmel; Carmel Rancho Pharmacy, Thunderbird Book Store and Petkus Veterinary, Carmel Valley; Thunderbird Book Store in Pebble Beach. Tickets will be on sale from one hour before each performance at the two box offices closest to the horse show arena at the Fairgrounds.

HEARST ENTRY

The William Randolph Hearst Jr. family will exhibit their magnificent mare "Pico Lina"

Pico Lina was sired by "Zamal," one of the original desert-bred stallions imported to San Simeon immediately after World War II by William Randolph Hearst.

The mare was started as a hunter by William Randolph Hearst III, and will be shown in several classes by Phoebe MRS. ROY FORZANI of Hidden Hills Stables in Carmel Valley exhibiting "Ratzi," purebred Arabian stallion. Mr. and Mrs.

Forzani will be showing for various local owners in the upcoming All Arabian Summer

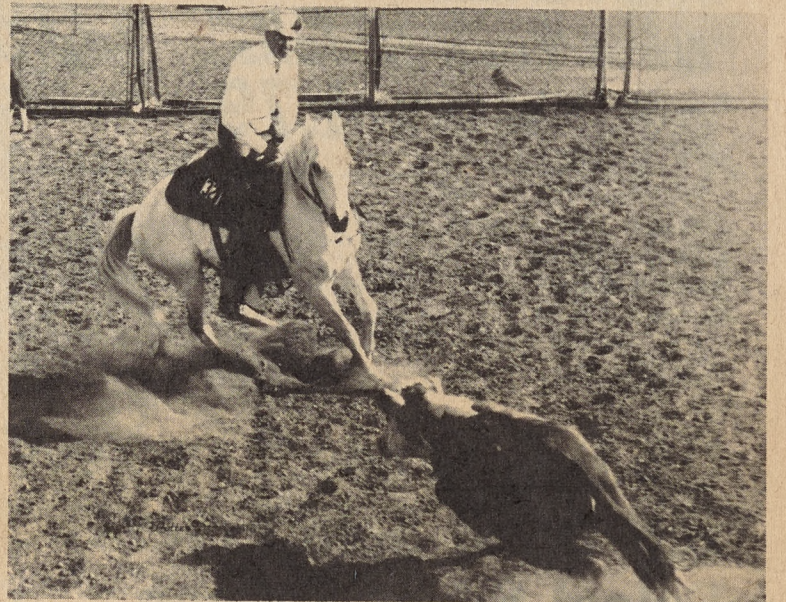

Horse Show at Monterey County Fairgrounds July 29, 30 and 31.

(Misty) Cooke, the eleven-year-old great-niece of the Hearsts. Misty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amory J. Cooke of Woodside, California, is a very accomplished young horsewoman, but this will be her first important Arabian horse show. The Cookes will attend the show as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hearst and their two sons, "Willie" and "Austie."

A letter from Mrs. Hearst, which accompanied their entry said in part....

"We spend too much time in New York to participate in California shows, but this show will be in our neighborhood, as we will be at San Simeon. We especially look forward to seeing the facilities at Monterey as we have heard so many glowing reports of them. We wish you (the show committee) all success with the show which will benefit such a worthy cause (the American Cancer Society)..."

Many prominent exhibitors are entered in this important show, including Mr. Charles Steen, uranium king of Carson City and Reno, Nevada. In addition to showing his fine string of purebred Arabian horses, Mr. Steen is loaning his authentic, imported Spanish "caleche" complete with position riders, outriders, and silver harnessed Arabian horses to the event. Many special features will add sparkle to an already spectacular attraction.

CHARLES STEEN, the "uranium man" of Carson City and Reno, Nevada, demonstrates the ability of his purebred Arabian cutting horse. Mr. Steen has a number of desert bred, imported Arabians entered in the Arabian Show. He is also loaning an authentic Spanish carriage (caleche) and a matched team of purebred Arabian horses for the event.

DOING?

Most children have a natural inclination toward good telephone usage. They answer politely, take messages correctly, call you to the phone quickly—and do not use the telephone as a toy. This pays off for parents, too . . . in compliments from friends who have talked with your children, in the valuable training that the children receive, and in getting your own incoming messages correct.

Delivery to our subscribers of the 1966 edition of the Monterey and San Benito Counties Telephone Directory was completed July 22nd. Subscribers who failed to receive their directory may call the Monterey Business Office, 375-1511, to arrange for a copy.

We may have discovered a new secret to cooking. A few Sundays ago, a young newlywed realized that she didn't know how long her dinner should cook. She just called mom back East, and got the answer—and all the latest news about her friends as well! Remember, on all out of state calls—station-to-station rates are never lower than all day long on Sunday.

"Sir, your time has come."

How did an inexperienced telephone operator answer a caller's request to notify him when his 3 minutes were up? The operator, now a cool-headed veteran, says, "I was still new at my work, so at the end of the three minutes I came on the line and said, 'Sir, your time has come.'" The operator can smile about her "goof" now. But she was disturbed at the time—and I'll bet her customer was too!

'MATTRESS'

Herzog as her paramour, Sir Harry, provide the theatre-goer with fine love duets.

Tracy Carr, the domineering, always yacking, Queen Aggravain, is finally put in her place as the Mouse devours the Hawk. She is appropriately sneaky and devious as she plots with the Wizard, Michael Collins) to eliminate each princess as she comes to the castle.

Richard Veale, the Minstrel, sings the tale with an authentic balladeer's voice, soft and slightly plaintive.

Under the direction of Shirley Eoff, "Once Upon a Mattress" is a spectacularly colorful and funny production. Don Mulderick's costuming is a riot of color and originality in keeping with Jack Simon's sets and lighting.

"Mattress" played to packed houses last week-end... and it should continue to do so!

Women's Club sponsors song contest to tout coming Fiesta

The Carmel Valley Women's Club is sponsoring a song writing contest to promote their Spanish Fiesta to be held on September 24. A $25 prize will be given for the best words and music about Carmel Valley.

The spirit of the song should be on the order of "Ramona," "In a Little Spanish Town," or "It Happened in Monterey," and tell of the history or heritage of the Valley.

The winning song will be recorded and used on local radio stations to promote the Fiesta. In addition, it will be the theme which the band will play off and on during the Ball held at the Holman Guest Ranch, climaxing the day-long Fiesta.

The contest closes August 15 and all entries should be mailed to Mrs. Richard Dick, Fiesta Chairman, Box 398, Carmel Valley.

what the course entailed, we felt the community should know what a worthwhile job these youngsters are doing. Eleven categories in which they must show proficiency in 65 specific skills are:

- 1) Self rescue; a person in trouble must know how to save himself.
  - 2) Elementary forms of rescue; simple rescues with some type of safety equipment.
  - 3) Life saving fundamentals; basic information in saving another person.
  - 4) Personal safety in small craft.
  - 5) Approaches; methods to come up to a victim in the water.
  - 6) Carries; means of bringing a victim to shore after rescue.
  - 7) Defense methods; ways to subdue a struggling victim.
  - 8) Releases; freeing oneself from a victim.
  - 9) Getting victim ashore; means of getting him from water to safety.
  - 10) Rescue in small craft; rescuing a person from a boat.
  - 11) Artificial respiration; different means of giving air.
- To pass the course, the swimmers must achieve a minimum of 75 points out of 100.

The training that these youngsters receive in water safety is one of the most important services of the lessons at the Valley pool because it could mean the saving of a life. This is their achievement and their satisfaction comes in the knowledge that they can be of help to a swimmer in trouble.

Valley Scouts plan annual backpack trip

Friday, August 19, Scoutmaster Bob Ray will take Carmel Valley Boy Scout Troop 127 on his annual 2 week trip to the High Sierras. Their destination this year will be Rae Lakes. The trip will be a combined scouting, educational and conservation project. Each scout will be required to do the following: 10 hours of practicing mountaineering conservation, which means repairing trails, cleaning campgrounds, gathering and preparing firewood for hikers and campers following, repairing stream crossings, building and repairing fireplaces, cleaning lake and stream edges of garbage and trash, generally improving camping areas, and repairing trail signs.

In addition, 45 minutes per day will be spent by each scout in learning and passing scout skills. Older, First Class Scouts can earn this time by helping Tenderfoot and Second Class Scouts in earning their next Scout rank or merit badge. Merit badges that can be partially earned on this trip include Hiking, Camping, Wildlife Management, First Aid, Nature, Botany, Water Conservation and several more. Older Scouts can also earn their Star Scout and Life Scout, Community Service and Conservation Projects.

Total hours for the trip are estimated to be 228.

the South County. Supervisors Church and Atteridge, who are known opponents of the advertising budget, indicated they would not support the motion.

Andy Anderson of Seaside, who voted in favor of the appropriation last year, cast the deciding "no" vote. His reason for postponing the decision until the final budget draft is his concern over the tax rate, he said. He felt that it was important to have the reports from department heads who have been attempting to cut the budget before deciding on the subsidy.

Part of the affirmative argument by Tom Hudson hinged on his opinion that receipts from the room tax on motels and hotels in the unincorporated areas should bring some benefit to the businesses providing the money, instead of losing it in the general fund.

The matter is scheduled to come up for discussion again tomorrow (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in the Supervisors Chambers.

and bought a new lamb for Mike. Hopefully, he will get this third lamb to the Fair on August 10, provided something can be done to keep the bloodthirsty attacker out.

Mrs. Anderson has pitched a tent beside the reinforced pen and hopes to have help in guarding the little new animal.

If anyone has seen a dog or other animal covered with blood, please report it at once so that something can be done to control it.
